Registration forms (Due Friday, August 21) (Make check payable to and mail to GA TSA, PO BOX 27, Oakman, GA 30732)

TSA Personal Liability and Medical Release Forms and ropes course forms need to be submitted at the conference for all participants. These forms are available for download on the Georgia TSA website. Each advisor should also have a copy for their records.

Statesman Award Test – an outline for the test can be downloaded at gatsa.org.

Purpose:

The CORE program is designed to provide Georgia TSA local chapter officers with an opportunity to develop interpersonal and leadership skills, gain necessary knowledge and abilities to carry out the duties of their individual offices, and prepare a Chapter Program of Work for the upcoming year.

Specific CORE Goals:

- Participants will develop an understanding of their personal characteristics and leadership traits.
- Participants will build teamwork and team spirit amongst their local chapter officers.
- Participants will gain knowledge, understanding and the ability to implement their officer duties.
- Participants, working together with their Chapter Officer Team, will develop a local Program of Work that is designed to ensure a successful year in Georgia TSA.
- Participants will have the opportunity to earn their Statesman Award.
- Participants will increase their understanding of the responsibilities of being a Georgia TSA State Officer.

CORE Overview:

- Meals - All meals are included in the registration fee beginning Friday evening with dinner, Saturday breakfast, lunch and dinner, and concluding with Sunday breakfast. There are generous portions served at each buffet-styled meal. Everyone needs to be on time for each meal.
- Lodging - Lodging is included in the registration fee. Participants will be housed in Cabin-Style Lodges that will accommodate between 16 and 20 campers in bunk beds. Cabins have a large bath area. Each cabin has an advisor room that should be reserved for the advisors. Participants will need to bring linens, sleeping bag, blanket, a pillow for their bunk bed, towels for their bathroom, and beach towel for swimming.
- Dress Code - As part of their registration fee, all participants will receive a CORE t-shirt to be worn on Saturday. Acceptable dress for the retreat includes: collared shirts, khakis, blue jeans (that are in good taste; no low baggies or midriffs showing) and sneakers or loafers.
 - Shorts must be finger tip length when waist is at normal height, no cutoffs.
 - No bedroom attire allowed outside dorm rooms, including slippers.
 - No exposed undergarments.
 - All students should be within the school dress code.
 - Bathing suits for swimming must be with good taste. Skimpy bathing suits will not be allowed.
 - There should not be any inappropriate advertising on clothing (i.e. alcohol, cigarettes, etc.).
 - Advisors should ensure that students in their chapter are dressed appropriately.
 - GA TSA has the right to ask any student to change attire that is deemed inappropriate.
- Attitude - Having a positive attitude is of utmost importance in the learning process. Advisors are encouraged to bring students that display a positive attitude towards working and learning with others. Our agenda is focused on bringing chapter members together so that they can develop team spirit.
- Registration – Please see the registration form for information regarding registration.
- Statesman Test – an updated Statesman Test outline can be found on the Georgia TSA website.
- Parking is limited – Cars and busses that stay for the weekend must stay parked.
- Questions – Please direct any questions you may have to Terri Hancock, State Association Director at 770-778-6550 or contactus@gatsa.org

TSA Talent Showcase

When: Saturday September 19, 2009

Where: TSA CORE Conference

What: TSA Talent Showcase

Who: Anyone or any group who like to showcase their talents.

Singing, dancing, playing a musical instrument, drama and poetry are just a few things that you can do.

Whatever it is you choose to present please make sure it is in good taste. We want to have good, clean fun so that we might be able to continue this in future years. Since we only have an hour, spots are limited, so please sign up early, and make sure your showcase is no more than 4 minutes in length.

If there are multiple people from your chapter who want to show their talent, group performances are encouraged. If you would like to participate, please complete the Talent Showcase Application and submit it by September 5 to Mrs. Hancock by fax 706-625-5766 or e-mail a scanned copy of application with advisor’s signature to contactus@gatsa.org. There will be no onsite registration for the talent show.

Talent Showcase Application

1. Language, dress, body movements, and lyrics must be appropriate and pre-approved by the participant’s Advisor.
2. Talent may not exceed 4 minutes.
3. Turn in your application and a copy of the lyrics (if applicable) by Sept. 5th to Terri Hancock, 706-625-5766 or scanned copy to contactus@gatsa.org.

Chapter Team Showcase

When: Sunday, September 20, 2009

Where: Georgia TSA Core Conference

What: TSA Chapter Team Showcase

Who: All officer teams who have been practicing parliamentary procedure

Now is the time to show off your officer team. Start practicing now the official Opening and Closing Ceremonies for chapter team. Each team will be given 8 minutes to perform the opening and closing ceremonies. Each attending school will judge the performances and a PRIZE will be award.

Bonus Competition:

If your officer team is up to the challenge you can compete in the bonus competition where you will have 12 minutes to perform a mock meeting with opening and closing ceremonies, old business, and new business. In the business portion of your meeting you will need to include 2 motions and 1 amendment. Teams will be judged by each attending school and a PRIZE will be awarded that is not worth passing up.

Register for competition by marking the Chapter Team Showcase box on the CORE registration form.
