

Georgia Technology Student Association Advisors' Conference Contract

1. Bring only your most responsible students who know how to behave and follow directions.
2. Bring 1 chaperone per 10 students.
3. Bring a female chaperone for female students and a male chaperone for male students.
4. Explain to attendees the following policy which has been established by the Georgia TSA Executive Committee:
 “Students who misbehave will subject their entire delegation to disciplinary action at the discretion of the State Advisor and/or Executive/Advisory Council. Disciplinary action may include expulsion from conference activities with no refund of registration fees and/or individual disqualification from state conference activities.”
5. Advisors must be in direct supervision of students at all times.
6. All students, chaperones and advisors will abide by the Dress Code.
